CIRCULAR No.15/97.

Sub:- F.D. - Purchase of barbed wire by the D.F.O., Kamareddy Division during 1978-79 - Disciplinary action against the D.F.O., Kamareddy - Regarding.
Ref:- G.M.No.12325/For.V-2/93-1, dated 7-6-1993.

In Kamareddy Division of Nizamabad Circle, a quantity of 50,000 Mt. of barbed wire was purchased during the year 1978-79. The quality of barbed wire purchased was found to be substandard. In this case even the EMD was not collected, but the entire payment was made through the material supplied was of substandard and not as per the technical specifications. The above acts of irregularities invited the adverse criticism from the Government. Therefore the Government has directed to issue Circular instructions to all concerned officers to avoid such lapses in future.

Therefore all the Conservators of Forests and Divisional Forest Officers are directed to follow the due procedure scrupulously while making purchases of any and every article from the market. Without committing any acts of omissions and commissions or procedural irregularities.

Not only in the purchase of store item but even in printing matters the Divisional Forest Officers and Conservators of Forests should ensure that proper Quotations are obtained before printing any brochure/pamphlet etc.

Officer violating the procedure shall be liable for disciplinary action.
